My thoughts and prayers are with the Cencula Family. I am so sorry for your loss.
Joey was a cool guy and I know he was deeply loved by his parents and family. It was great having the whole family and watching them grow up as Sand Lake neighbors.

Joe was so warm and kindhearted to everyone. He always was cheerful and made me feel welcomed. He really enjoyed seeing my Grandson when I brought him to the club, and gave him a little stuffed monkey, which to this day, Bennett still plays with, and brings to bed at nap time.

I know he will be missed by everyone who had the pleasure of his company.

Rest in Peace, Joe, the world was a better place with you.

Joey, as I knew him, loved his mustang!! I can see him driving down Engle Dr. in "The Village" while we that didn't have a license yet were walking. He would cruise past a couple times and then stop and ask if we wanted a ride and there wasn't a girl around that wouldn't jump at the chance to get in a car with a Cencula boy. Until we meet again Joey..... RIP

Aw, Joe; you may be gone but you won't be forgotten--your laugh, your pranks--you had a fast life so you had to fit a lot in. You're with God now in Whom you had great faith.

One of our memories....Having lunch with him at our house and watching him and Dan talk, and laugh together. "Mr. Joey" was always so good with all our boys. Very generous, hard working and a good-hearted man. You and your smile will be missed Joe. Christine

I will never forget you, Joey, the little boy sitting on our front steps along with his brothers, Art and Mike, waiting for my husband, the late Kerm Radke, to come home and toss the football around. You will be greatly missed by all. You came from a wonderful family with so much love. God Bless the Cencula Family and you Joey. Love, Penny (Radke) Bailitz.

Our deepest sympathies to the Cencula family! We will always have fond memories of Joey! We were friends all throughout our school years and graduated together. He was ambitious, loved going fast (he even walked fast) and was a fun and kind person. He will be missed! RIP our friend!
