“ Morgan and I met online. Within a few days we found out we were looking for the same thing at the time. We went on a few dates and became a couple.

When she told me about her seizures I did worry about her time and time again, messaging her every day to make sure she was okay.

After the passing of her mother, the seizures got worse, she and I realized our relationship wasn't going anywhere so we agreed to go our own ways but maintained communication with each other.

The last message I got from her was asking me for a Christmas list on the 30th of November.

You'll always be in my heart Morgan and you were the best friend I ever had. Sweet, passionate, caring, etc.

“ Morgan was one of my first true friends after my accident in middle school. She had such a big heart and was so good to me. I wish I kept in touch with her. My heart goes out to her family and loved ones.

“ Thank you again, for allowing me to pay my respects. I still remember Chinatown in Chicago this past year. She had so many great insights about the food. Such a great chef, full of advice. Always offering gifts, or thoughtful gestures, like a dinner out to cheer one up after a difficult week. I will miss you, Morgan, very much. You were an uncommon friend. Greet your Mother for me, she sounded like a rare woman from the way you told it.

“ Dear Art and all the Cencula family. We are so sad to hear of Morgan's passing. We still live in the wonderful quality home that Art and uncle Jerry built in 1969. We have so many sweet memories of all your family we could go on for ever. Morgan has many angels with open arms for her. God bless you all.
