“ Linda, Shelly, Dave, Jason and all of Rick's family,

We are so very sorry for your loss. Rick was an amazing husband, loving father, adoring grandpa and faithful friend. He was also a wonderful friend and neighbor. Whether it was figuring out ways to survive yet another "flood", sending a cheery hello across the court, admiring "the Mayor's" 9 lives, sharing a yummy dessert, updating us on village meetings or letting us use your trailer or power washer... we could count on Rick. His love and generosity seemed limitless at times. We will miss him greatly. You honored him beautifully these past few days. May his legacy of faith, love and hope continue in each of you. He was and is so proud of you all! And now, he gets to help Jesus prepare the mansions in heaven for those who believe in the Lord Jesus and our saved. There is no greater joy in times like these then the promise of eternity with our loved ones, thanks to Jesus! May you experience this great hope and comfort in the days ahead.

Love,
John and Pam Ostrander
