“ I was blessed with the very best Auntie
My Dear Auntie Alice ~
From the time I was a very little girl,
I remember the love she gave to me.
Her high heels enticed me...
I would slip them on, and cloppity clop around the kitchen, loving the sound that they made.
My fondest memory is going with her to the Pawlikowski Drug Store.
We would cross Milwaukee Avenue, still the red brick pavement.
She would hold my hand as we crossed.
I would be holding a Hershey Bar that she bought for me.
I wonder if she noticed me sniffing the wrapper.
This is a cherished moment, never to be forgotten.
At every Procession or Event my Dear Auntie was there on the side taking pictures or handing me a bouquet of flowers.
As time went on, I remember the traditions that we celebrated.
I always enjoyed looking at the ornaments and lights on her Christmas Tree.
I can hear her warning, "You better behave, because that Santie Claus is looking through that window."
My head would slowly turn to that window,
and a dreaded "oh oh" was unspoken.
On New Years Eve she taught me that it was very important to eat pickled Herring for Good Luck.
We wore hats and blew our horns at Midnight.
There were difficult times when she was there to give me strength and comfort.
I can hear her voice and how she said my name.
She made me feel so loved.
As time went on and I had children of my own,

*they also felt close and loved by My Dear Auntie Alice.
Auntie Alice, there are so many memories that you are a Special part of.
We Love YOU ~
We will not forget YOU ~
YOU are in our Hearts Forever <3*
