“ I was so sorry to hear of Andrew's passing. I was Andrew's fourth grade teacher (and Danny's as well). I remember Andrew as a funny, sweet, likable, and slightly mischievous (in a good way!) boy. I am positive he was a wonderful young man, and I know you will miss him terribly. Please accept my heartfelt condolences, prayers, and support.
With deepest sympathy,
Becky Dougherty (Cosler)

“ Dear Gorney Family: I was saddened when Mrs. Gehrke let the Thompson School staff know of Andrew's passing. I worked with Andrew when he was in second grade. He was a wonderful young boy and I'm certain he grew up to be a fine young man. Please know that my prayers go out to all of you. Kathy Molve

“ Andrew was a man who kept his own counsel. You didn't always know what was on his mind. He wasn't an easy read. There was a depth to that child (he wasn't a child really but I always thought of him as my boy). I have to say this about Andrew HE NEVER COMPLAINED. He never asked why he had to suffer. He was absolutely stoic. I can only attribute that to two things. First it was the example of his parents. Jim and Toni you two will always be my example of what marriage can and should be. The second is Andrew's courage. His courage came from within but his family helped him access that strength. I will spend the rest of my life trying to find the courage that was second nature to Andrew. I love you all.
