

Angeline Flood

November 20, 1933 - March 3, 2021

Angeline Flood, 87 years of age, passed away Wednesday, March 3, 2021 at Condell Medical Center with her family close by. Angeline was born on November 20, 1933 in Waukegan, IL to the late Peter and Tillie. She was the third youngest of seven children, five preceded her in death. Angeline was a graduate of Zion Benton High School and also attended Cosmetology School at the Mueller Beauty School in Waukegan, IL.

Angeline was the loving mother of the late Cherri (Bob) Parsons, Kimberly (Mark) Davis Ingram, Jennifer (Anthony) Flood, and Miranda (Stevan) Flood; and sister to Caroline (Jim) Armstrong.

Angeline was also the proud and loving grandmother to Morgan, Patrick, Michael, Conor, Moira, and Brennan (Miranda & Stevan's children); and Breein and the late April (Cherri's children). "Grandma Flood" was selfless, and she doted on her grandchildren and spoiled them endlessly. She always made sure they were taken of. She never missed attending one of their births, birthday parties, Baptisms, First Holy Communions, piano recitals, graduations, Christmases, Thanksgivings, Easter Dinners, Confirmations, baseball games, summer barbecues, and the like. She was always there for her grand kids and was their pillar of strength. The grandchildren will always remember her assembled Easter & Halloween baskets and the handmade baby blankets that each of them received. Angeline was also a great grandmother and aunt and great aunt to many nieces and nephews.

Angeline is now reunited with her loving, late husband Michael Flood and other departed family members Peter, Tillie, Aurora, Sophie, Pete, Si, Solomon, Edmund, Vivian, Maureen, Pat, Cherri, April, Mark, and her beloved, departed pets, Peabody and Oxbow.

Angeline was a Cosmetologist/Hair Dresser for 50+ years, and styling hair was her passion. Not only did her customers value her, but she always kept her family members looking meticulously groomed. She enjoyed doing hair since she was a child and would give you a haircut "whether you needed one or not."

She resided in Lindenhurst, IL more than half of her life, and she loved spending quality time with her grandchildren. While minding them, she'd teach them how to play baseball out in the back yard, and they still play baseball to this day. Angeline also enjoyed tending to her large vegetable gardens, growing beets, egg plants, green beans, peppers, and tomatoes and also taking care of her fragrant rose and honeysuckle flower beds. She embarked on various camping trips around the country with her husband and family, but she also enjoyed her time at home sewing and painting with oils on canvas. Bob Ross was her favorite artist. She admired not only his skills as a painter but also his strong faith. Angeline painted several masterpieces herself with beautiful ocean, mountain, and farmland landscapes that we encouraged her to display more and/or sell. She loved gazing at the clouds in the sky, and buying leopard print for clothing and accessories. Angeline was an excellent cook. Everyone loved her homemade chicken noodle soup (which was always her perfect remedy for a cold), her spaghetti, oatmeal, and cheesy egg and chili pepper tortillas. She spent quiet time reading bible versus, watching happy movies on the Hallmark Channel, watching Billy Graham and also the Food Network. Even in her 80s, she pursued her conceal and carry license, started learning how to play the piano, and read most of James Patterson's books. Music was a big part of her life, too. Engelbert Humperdinck was her favorite singer, and she attended three of his concerts later in life after years of dreaming to see him live. We loved hearing stories of her youth and the life lessons that she taught us. Angeline also supported many charitable causes like St. Jude, the American Cancer Society, the Humane Society, Easter Seals, St. Joseph's Indian School, political and Christian organizations, Wounded Warriors, etc. She will be missed dearly and will forever be in our hearts.

A celebration of Angeline's life will be held on Wednesday March 10, 2021 from 10 – 11AM at Ringa Funeral Home, 122 S. Milwaukee Ave, Lake Villa, IL. Funeral Service will begin at 11AM followed by a procession to Warren Cemetery in Gurnee, IL.

“ "Mother dear," as I always called you, I love you with all my heart and soul. I am finding myself reaching for the phone to call you, but then I remember that I can't. I had literally thousands of pictures of you to go through from over the years that caught many of our celebrations, milestones, holidays, family events, and just candid shots of when you visited. I am so grateful for every single one of those moments that we spent together. There wasn't a single birthday, Christmas, piano recital, band concert, Thanksgiving, baptism, summer BBQ, etc. that you were not part of. I miss talking to you every day and your ear that you always gave. I miss your advice and chit-chat. I miss all the Friday night dinner and movies that you & dad used to spend with Steve & me. I miss taking you to the doctor and our conversations in the car along the way. You were not only an amazing mom, but you were such an incredible grandma to my children. They are missing you dearly, too. You always looked out for them and made sure they were taken care of. I know you will be their guardian angel from heaven. The strong bond that you had with your grandchildren was like no other. You never missed any of their events, holidays, birthdays, milestones, and other celebrations. I bet that having six grandchildren and making every single event wasn't particularly easy, especially when it became harder for you to walk. The kids, Steve, and I are so very grateful for all the memories that we made together with you. We love you so very, very much, mom. I am finding a little peace knowing that you are with dad and your other relatives that you haven't seen in a very long time. Even though this has been (and will continue to be) an emotional roller coaster, I am finding comfort knowing that you are with Jesus. I love you, mom, with all my heart and soul forever. God bless your soul.

“ Mom, My heart is crying out to you. This was so unexpected. Our hearts are so broken. You told us you wanted to go with Jesus and we knew then you were hurting. So we had to decide to let you go. We will always Love You and Miss You So Very Much ! We will think about you every single day and cherish every memory we had with you. You are in Heaven now with all loved ones and no longer in pain. You are the strongest woman I have ever known and fought everyday to stay as long as you could to beat this. We all seen this happening. I will miss the holidays we spent together and talking to you on the phone every single day. You will be missed dearly. We will see you again. I love you mom. Kimberly
