“ In Loving Memory of Anita Irene Weber. June 26, 1931 - September 26, 2015.

*There's a place I've never seen beyond this world we know.
A place I've only heard of, But someday hope to go.
It's not on any map; there are no roads to take me there.
But it's a place of perfect peace where hearts are free from care.
And though I understand some may be saddened when I leave,
One day we will all meet again, that's what I believe.*

*God promises us that if we believe & give our life's to Jesus Christ as your Lord
And Savior you will be saved & live eternal life in paradise with him.
I have hope & look forward to that day! Amen*

Till we meet again, I love you Mom! Your daughter, Linda “ I've known Irene since she married Duke when I believe I was in second grade. Since I have heard of the loss of her, I find myself speechless and stunned.

I remember going to her house for Halloween, and her cooking in the kitchen, then there are memories of talking to her in the living room while she cuddled baby Tom. Of course I remember her and my mom gardening and Huey the goose attacking them; with Irene jumping on my mom's back for safety! Of course, I can never forget her being Troublemaker #1 (or was that my mom?). I forget! Either way, they were both trouble!

Later in life, we shared Christmas gifts, and used the same gift tags every year, and just adding on another line each time (which I still have, and cherish).

And then enjoying Duke and Irene at McHenry Country Club with my parents, who have already passed. We used spend hours talking, laughing, drinking, eating and yes, drinking some more. Those were cherished times!

Anyway, I was blessed to spend time with and get to know Irene. In going through my parent's things, I have run across several pictures with Duke and Irene. They are tucked away to look at another time.

I must not be selfish, and hang on to Irene any longer...she deserves to be pain free and reunited with Carola and her dear parents (which I remember warmly). I'm just blessed to have gotten to know her, and I'll never forget her no matter what life brings.

The Hudsonpillar and Collins Families, Your Nephew & Nieces - September 28, 2015 at 02:20 PM

“ I am the only nephew of my Aunt Irene Weber. Her loss has to me is overwhelming. I am happy that her suffering is over and that she has joined her family in Heaven who I know were all waiting for her. I am certain they are having a wonderful family reunion in God's Kingdom. I want to share with you some of my memories of my Aunt Irene Weber. Throughout my child hood and Adult life she has always been there for me and my family. My wife Lynn and my children Brandon (D), Terra and Travis and grand daughter Savannah all love her dearly. Her love, compassion, kindness and generosity has always surrounded our family in our times of happiness and sadness. She was always there for us.

As newlyweds she helped Lynn and I get settled into our first home and through the birth of our first child, Brandon. She was there for us with words of love, compassion, guidance and the the wisdom of raising her own nine children when we learned that Brandon, our first born had birth defects, that would require 4 surgeries to save his life and correct the problems with his kidneys, skull and brain.

She was there with us to share the joy of the birth of daughter, Terra and son, Travis when they were born. As we began to raise our young family she was always there when we needed her. Her compassion, love and guidance to Lynn and I has made our love stronger as we have made our way to 43 years of marriage. She was always been the rock I could depend on as we have gone through life's challenges.

I am going to miss not being able to pickup the phone and call her to seek her guidance and to share news of our family. We all have fond memories of spending time with her and Uncle Duke and all of the cousins there in Lake Villa. I spent a couple of summers with her and Uncle Duke working on the Duck Farm. The memories from those two long summers with her are some of the best days of my youth. I will never forget the many family dinners around the big round dinner table in their big brick house there on Douglas Lane. We know how much she loved the House Uncle Duke built for her across the Road next to Tom and Becky.

We remember her love for collecting things and decorating her house. When we would come to visit her she enjoyed showing off the newest additions to her collection as she told us the story behind them. She had an amazing collection of antiques and knick knacks that she just could not pass by. Each was full of love and history.

She loved her family and had a special place for each of us. Lynn and I enjoyed hearing about her grandchildren and the latest news on what my cousins and their children were doing. Cousins we have to stay in touch.

Uncle Duke I love you. We all Love you and send our deepest condolences and love to you and Tom, Linda, Shanda, Anita, Bill, Julie and Lisa.

We pray that God's love and word will comfort you as in, "ISIAH 41:10 - "So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous hand."
