“ Ann was our neighbor for quite a few years. Her and Earl were the most friendly neighbors from the very first day we moved into our new home. I had the privilege of going to visit her, along with Dave, on several occasions. May she rest in peace. Vicki and I send our condolences to Dave and his family.

“ Dear Robert, Judy, David and Betty I was so sorry to read of your mom's death. I remember coming to your home with Judy and how she always made me feel welcome. .Even when I am sure Judy and I were driving her zonkers. Please accept my sympathy.

JoAnn Calderone, classmate of Judy and Prince of Peace and Antioch H.S.

“ I have many memories of Aunt Ann. One of my earliest is about bananas. Whenever I went to her house there were always bananas and this was a really big deal. Not sure if we didn't have them at home very often but what I do know is that it was a big treat to have one at Aunt Ann's. And the banana bread was good too! I also remember the cococut covered lamb cakes at Easter with green grass and jelly beans all around them. One thing that facinated me about Aunt Ann is that she organized her purse with used envelopes. She kept money in one, coupons in another.....as a little girl I would do the same in my purse! I want to send my love and sympathy to my cousin's Bobby, Judi, David and Betti. You are in my prayers and my heart. Love Bonnie

Ann was one of the sweetest ladies we had the pleasure of knowing. She was a gentle soul. Her and Earl's presence was always reassuring presence to a young couple raising their family, far from home. Rest well dear friend and neighbor. Our deepest sympathy to the family. John and Pat Ciko
