“ One of my fondest memories is visiting Aunt Ariel and Uncle Jim and thinking they were so rich because they had pop tarts! My mother never bought them because there are five of us "children" and one box wouldn't even be one breakfast! Aunt Ariel found this funny. I find it comforting that last Friday for the first time in our 27 year marriage, my husband and I shared a package of pop tarts for breakfast. Aunt Ariel had a special gift. No matter how much time went by, whenever I reached out to her she always reached back without making me feel guilty for letting so much time go by. We celebrate the life of this amazing woman with you and share your sorrow. Katie Aumann Morales

“ We moved from Chicago in the mid-1960's, but we always visited, and usually stayed at, Aunt Ariel's and Uncle Jim's house when we traveled back to Chicago. I have fond memories of visiting Ariel and Jim. Regrettably, after my father's death we did not stay in touch except for Christmas cards and Facebook posts, and I have not seen Ariel in many decades now.

My condolences to Uncle Jim and the Nikolai family.

“ Jim, Amy, kids and rest of the family. So very sorry to hear of this loss. A mother is a tremendous leader, mentor and soul within a family. She has impacted you all and a bit of her resides in each of you. Take those attributes, the ones that you looked up to her for, carry and exhibit for all to see and enjoy. This would be her legacy and one she would be proud of.

“*May the road rise up to meet you.
May the wind be always at your back.
May the sun shine warm upon your face;
the rains fall soft upon your fields
and until we meet again,
may God hold you in the palm of His hand.”
