For those of you who were blessed to know Audre, you knew that she was one of the most genuine, kind, and loving people ever. If she was your friend, then she was your friend for life. You knew that you were her friend when she told you to “just call me Grammie”. We were truly blessed to have her in our lives. We love and miss you Grammie.

“ *When I was 10 years old the McGinnis family moved into the neighborhood.
Jody and I became best friends the summer before high school.
When I was 15, I lost my mom, so Jody shared her mom with me.
Grammie always introduced me as her other daughter. I always said she was my bonus mom.
She took care of me when I needed her the most.
After her stroke I always tried to visit every Sunday.
We laughed, we cried and always talked about everything and anything. .
I'm going to miss my Sunday's with Grammie.
I love you.*
