“ good morning cousins

*Thank you for making it possible to view this tribute to Aunt Betty! I needed to shed a few tears and remember all of my departed Aunts and Uncles today. I am in San Diego currently and will share a memory of Chuck and Betty when they came to visit me here. They took care of Jenny (she was 2) while I worked and when came home I found Chuck playing the role of Tinman and following Jenny's commands while Betty filled in all the blanks including the Wizard. Apparenty, they had a magical afternoon! Betty was so loving I will remember her for that. Peace to all
Love Valerie*

“ Auntie Betty was so very sweet and good to all of us growing up. I remember backyard swimming and BBQ's with everyone. Her home was always open to everyone - just like her heart....lots of love and warmth.
My favorite memory was when she took me to the Red Goose Shoe store and bought me the most awesome Ruby Red dress shoes!! It was an amazing day with her (no brothers/sisters along....just me!)
All my love to you Mick, Dan and Tim..... she raised 3 wonderful men

I remember the pool parties and the cousin parties at uncle Alan's. My dad talked about joining his brothers for a shot and a beer, She is there now. Love to all
