“ I enjoyed studying the Bible with Carol on Sunday mornings led by Bruce H., and I know she had faith and trust in Jesus, and never stopped seeking him. John wrote: Jesus said to her (Martha), “I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will have life even if he dies. And he who lives and believes in me will never die...” John 11: 25-26 We will miss seeing Carol, but trust and find comfort in Jesus' promise of eternal life for those who choose to believe.

“ To David, Becky, and all of Carol's family: My heart aches for your loss of Carol, and I send my deepest condolences to you all. I have some lovely memories of Carol from when she was married to my brother Jack Ahrens. I remember parties and picnics at the house on Seymour for Becky's birthday, and David's birthday. I remember my ex-husband Joel and I playing cards with Carol and Jack, and laughing ourselves silly. Carol had a wonderful dry sense of humor that often had me in stitches. I remember the arrival of our wonderful David, such a huge blessing to our families. He and Becky were such a joy to Carol. I hadn't been in touch with Carol directly since she and Jack divorced (Jack got custody of me), but I will cherish those good memories. God bless you all with comfort and strength in your loss and grief. On behalf of the Ahrens family, myself, my brother Jeff and his wife Janie, my sister Susan and her husband Dave, and all of our kids and grandkids, we extend our prayers and thoughts to all of you. With much, much love, Cheryl
