“ Kimberly: My name is Pat Bulinski (Patty Ann Zdora when I was younger) and we're third cousins. My grandfather Robert Burns and your grandfather Bill were brothers. I remember visiting Uncle Bill, Nancy, and your Mom many times when they lived in Chicago on 55th Street. Your mother was always so sweet and patient with me and my sisters, even though we were probably annoying and noisy. And if you have any pictures of your parents' wedding, you may see me in the bridal party as a dorky 8 year old junior bridesmaid! I have many fond memories of your mother and was saddened to hear of her passing. Please let your family know that I am praying for them at this difficult time.
