“ Pat, Ryan, and Chad, I just learned about Carolyn's death from Terri. It's been so many months since she passed away that I don't know if you'll see this. However, I need to pay tribute to her as she was such a blessing in my life, such a dear friend and loving and caring person!! This is a time when I am so sorry I didn't keep in close touch, letting things go until Christmas to send greetings. You are all so special to me and will always be!! The three of you and the rest of the family are in my thoughts and prayers as you go through this first holiday season without her. I picture her smiling and laughing as she so often did when we were together. Her memory will remain in my mind and my heart forever. I pray you've had the comfort and support of faith, family and friends during these past ten months and that you will continue to receive the comfort and strength you need each day. May God bless you always! Love, Rose Pech
