“ Every day I keep thinking about the moments we shared. How Christi could make me laugh when I was feeling down, and how she always put others first. I think about the silly things we did, and how much I loved being around her because I could just be me. Missing you Christi <3

“ To the family of Christi McCulloch and the Seller family, our thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. It seems like yesterday that she was playing in the neighborhood and being dragged to wrestling meets to watch her brother. Such great memories of a wonderful family. God speed.

“ I will miss Christi dearly. She was a great person who was dedicated to her family and always thought of others first. This was made obvious to me especially over the course of the last 3 years. Whenever we talked she deflected questions from her to ask how we were. She asked questions and dispensed with free medical advice showing her genuine concern of others. Her love for her family will continue to grow. She will always be present.

Rest easy Christi.

Love your brother.

“ We will miss Christi deeply. Miss planning our gardens and sharing our goodies that we grew. Miss seeing her across the street and catching up. Miss such a kind person who was taken too soon from her family and friends.

“ Wow! So many memories of Christi. We grew together, supported each other and were always available for each other, no matter how much time may have gone by. We would laugh about anything and nothing. Keeping it short..we were driving from Kalamazoo to Battle Creek one evening and got to laughing so hard we had to pull off the road until we could see past the tears to drive. I have been blessed to be a part of this amazing womans life and even more so by being friends with her. She defines the word LOVE!

Christi lived in my neighborhood when we were young and I always thought it was special that we shared our birthday exactly. Goodbye birthday twin, RIP, I am sorry I did not know the wonderful woman you had become. Minda
