“ Steve, Mary, Cindy and Donna. No words can express my sadness. Growing up, our parents were best friends. As they were since way back when. The distance between Mundelein and Glen Ellyn was difficult, yet, they always found a way to bring us together. Amazing how you 4 siblings were so close in age to mine. Its almost as if they spoke on the phone and planned it together. After my mom passed in 2007, any time I saw YOUR mom, she would quietly tell me how much she missed mine. I can still smell your mom’s fabulous dinners cooking in the oven. Hanging out in your finished basement with the pool table(my dad not so familiar).. AND the glass bottles of Soda we could help ourselves to. Why wouldn’t we love visiting? End of the GREATEST Era. Last time i saw Chris and “Ro” was at my dad Tony’s wake in 2019. Mom looked like she never aged. The Rauch family will forever in my heart be “my family” Thanks for all of the beautiful memories I will cherish forever!.
