“ One of my fondest memories of Chris is when we were kids, sneaking through someone's backyard, and we were trying to be super quiet, so he said, "Let's act like ninjas!" and then immediately slipped on wet leaves and hollared at the same time, very un-ninja like.

Many of my memories of the early 90s involve Chris in some way, as we hung out all the time. After I moved away we kept in regular contact, and he would visit me in Colorado, one time flying out to visit.

I haven't spoken to him in a few years, but he was in my thoughts often. I'll miss him.
