

Dean T Ford

July 20, 1965 - February 27, 2022

On Sunday, February 27th, 2022 Dean Travis Ford, loving husband and father passed away at the age of 56. Dean was born on July 20, 1965, in Elgin, IL to Georgian Worthington and the late Larry Ford. Dean happily lived in Round Lake with his wife and family. Dean fought a long battle of Covid Pneumonia and unfortunately after a 3 month long battle, his lungs could not keep fighting.

Dean was happily married for 25 years to Marina Ford. One of his prized possession was his truck; cleaning and shining it up was his favorite pastime. If you knew Dean, you would know he always had a way of expressing himself. Bullying his grandkids whenever he could was a way of him expressing his love towards them. Dean loved eagles. It was his favorite animal. He enjoyed fishing and playing games on his phone all with a Diet Mountain Dew on his side. He was known for his snarky comments, sarcasm and great humor.

Dean is survived by his wife Marina Ford, his mother Georgian Worthington, his siblings Shelly Shaw, Charmane Edwards, Rona Paseo, Chad Ford; his 5 children Dean K. Ford, Dakota Ford, Cindy Ocampo, Gretchen Ocampo, Edly Ocampo and his grandchildren and nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his father Larry Ford and by his baby daughter Tara Ford.

“ Dean, known as Kool Kat in GoG, was the el Jefe of our alliance. But he was more than just the boss, he was a teammate and friend. He was a sarcastic smartass and I loved it. His input always made me laugh. Some people enrich your life and Dean, aka Kool did that for me and others in the game. He will be deeply missed.

Dean was a great friend, although I hadn't seen him in quite some time. I am sorry to find out he started his journey before I could touch base with him again. Godspeed.

“ My favorite memory of my brother growing up as a kid was when my mom would be in the phone & she would tell us to turn the TV down so she could hear. Dean seeing is board would make up voices for all the characters in the show we were watching and he would ALWAYS make it so funny that Chad & I would be laughing & giggling so hard, which would also get my mom to start paying not attention to what he was saying instead of her phone call and so then she would start laughing too.. ❤️ He always did the best Donald Duck voice too

Dean was a 9lb 1oz bouncing baby. He would entertain himself.

Was a easy baby ,smiled alone. He had some of the most beautiful blue eyes .people would stop & say

What sweet child. Very calm.

Then at the age of about 2 1/2 we were in a store shopping He wandered off met this lady , she said hi there cutie n wrapped his arms around her leg n bit her on the upper part of her leg.

13 and 14...our ages when we first met...there is not enough time in the day for all the memories...you were my Best Friend...and a part of me...left with you...Tears and Cheers to you my dear friend...you are missed already by many...I would like to share a memory...one that Dean made me promise not to tell...but it is a memory that makes me laugh...Dean and I were about 14 and 15, too young to drive I know. We got a "friend" to buy us a pack of Redman Chewing tobacco. Once we received our item we took off on our bikes heading back towards my house. We got on the Prairie Path, road down it a bit and stopped. Dean open the package and broke the plug in two. He looks at me and gives me half and gives me half. We popped the tobacco in and got back on the bikes. We started to ride to Dean's house on Roosevelt using the back roads. However, after about 15 minutes...I noticed Dean was slowing down...then Dean went into a spiral and crashed in the intersection. I ran over to Dean wondering what the heck just happened and Deans lying there looking up at me and says..."I got dizzy man...then all I saw was the road!! and I don't feel good"...I said "Looks like you can't handle Redman dude...you might of swallowed some of the juice". Dean got up and said "I swallowed all of it"...I said "Your suppose to spit the tobacco juice out!!! I fell out. Needless to say, after two pukes, constant spitting and gagging, Dean swore off chewing tobacco that day...That was just part of one day with my friend...my brother...Dean...I miss you...say hello to the others for me...
