“ My sincerest condolences to you, Anne, and your Dad, and all the family! I was so sad to get your note in my card. I have the best memories of your Mom. Yours was a child-centered home--nothing like mine! I loved your house--your Mom playing the piano, all of us kids singing around it. She was the best cook and the best baker. I remember coming home from school and she always had something for us to eat. She was the best. As a mom myself, I modeled myself after your Mom. I know I fell short numerous times, but I always tried to have hot cocoa and cookies for my kids after school because that's what Mrs. Karst used to do for us. You're right, of course--she is in a better place. God bless you, Dolores Karst! We have been so blessed by having you!

“ Please accept our deepest sympathies as we remember Aunt Dolores, a loving wife, mother, grandmother, and more. She always remembered my birthday. Fond memories of Ricky as well come to mind as he welcomes her home to that place of unity in God's family we all hope for. With loving regards, Chuck, Kimberly, Katie, and Jeremy Stiava.
