“Doris and Allen were our neighbors for many years. Doris was the nicest, caring and helpful person to be around. Her cookie jar was always full to My children’s delight.
She was always active in church functions.
Doris and Allen raised three wonderful children.
She was blessed to have such a caring daughter and grandchildren to spend her life with.
We will miss her sweet smile and caring ways.
Love and prayers to her family. They were blessed with a wonderful Mother.

“Doris and Al were part of my church family at Trinity Inglewood. Doris lived as a very Faithful Christian who loved to pray and read her Bible every morning. She was very caring and loving, very unselfish, truthful, hard working, responsible, and meek. It was a honor to have her presence in your life.
