“ My wife and I were fortunate to be next door neighbors to Ed and Sherry, in Bourbonnais. They were more than neighbors, as they were our friends.

We shared many laughs on the backyard deck with Ed and Sherry. We covered everything from old TV trivia and music trivia to current events.

Ed was a great storyteller. He would tell a serious story and then the ending punchline was always met with laughter. Many know that Ed liked to fish and I did as well. There was a pond next door to Ed and I used to fish. While we were fishing one time, I asked him if he had any lures to catch bass. He reached in his tackle box and hooked me up with a Texas jig on my pole. With my pole, Ed proceeded to demonstrate. Always one to give clear directions, I remember his words...."Cast the line out...let it sit for two seconds....then, give the tip of the pole a little twitch." It was at that moment on his first cast, with my pole, Ed landed a nice sized bass! We had many laughs over that incident.

We will always remember Ed for his kindness and compassion. When Ed worked at Riverside hospital, he really gave my mother-in-law first class care in her declining years. God bless Ed and Sherry as well as his entire family and friends. - Dave and Karen Bayer -

I just texted Ed to check-in. He had been on my mind lately. I'm so sad to hear this. Thank you for being my friend and my GSU brother. Rest easy, Ed. To the Moore family, my deepest condolences and may God keep you in his arms and grace. You truly lost a great man and I am just so sorry. He was a passionate change agent and we had some of the best laughs in class. So much so, we were always so close to having to remove ourselves. He loved all of you so much and I looked up to him and how he cherished and respected his marriage and loving wife. He was one of the good ones! Fly high! 🥹💔🙏

“ So many laughs and wonderful memories. Thanking God He allowed me to be by your side during your last minutes, holding your hand, walking that final walk to be with our Lord and Savior. I know our family members were gathered waiting for you too. You were the BEST big brother and our talks about God, the world, and what we leave behind will be with me for my lifetime. Love your little sis and brother-in law; Pam and David.

“ Dearest Brother, as your older (Irish Twin) sister I will remember the hysterical laughs we have shared through the years. The way you would crawl down the hall to sneak a peek at Santa on Christmas Eve , making your sisters giggle. And the fishing incident, you, me and Becky, by a lake, a huge bird flying directly over you and splat, we laughed hysterical for days. I will always remember your humor. Rest peacefully, love and smiles, Pat
