“ My condolences to the Arroyo family! Eliu was a good brother I've known him since grammar school. Eliu always looked out for everyone in the neighborhood. We were just talking about some boxing fights the other day. I see how much you loved your kids and we talked about how we come along way to family men. We're going to miss you brother we lost a good one. May you Rest In Peace. My blessings to your loved ones.

“ Eliu me and the kids are devastated by this news. But always know they loved you very much. They will never forget their Dad. We shared so many happy memories and we will cherish those memories forever. You left us to soon but I know you are not in pain any longer. That makes me feel at peace. You lived a good 37yrs and you are truly missed. Love always Ebony and your kids Eliu, Mya and Dasia
