“ Frankie, as I used to call him, when he was 13 and I was 15, was my best friend and my Brother. He was 6 ft tall and 200 lbs, and I was 5' 7" and 126 lbs . We were "Mutt and Jeff" - the odd couple. St. Petersburg Fla. in the early '70s. These were tough times of adolescence, when we were trying to find out who we were as "Man children" Funny, but even then "Frankie" already knew who he was ... and he helped me "find myself". Thru the years he introduced me to my first love, and then my true love. He was my "Best Man" in '78, and I was his years later ... we went separate ways = and then came back together... funny how then paths of life so often intersect .. I had the privilege of being there when his 3 "most loved" were born, and he was there when our most lovely one was laid to rest.

We agreed in our late 20's to quit with the names Frankie and Rob Roy, and just go with Frank and Rob. I was there when Frank got to lay down and finally "Take it easy" (both, big Eagles fans).... but to this day, I think of him daily..... saved these thoughts for nearly 3 years now, as our friendship was between us... just want the kids to know how AWESOME that quite, calm, Christian father of theirs was, and how much he meant to this family in Sweet Home AlabamaBrothers don't get to choose each other...Best Friends do From age 13 until age 55 , my Brother, forever and still today .

“ Frank was one of the most kind, gentle persons I knew. He was a great cousin. As a kid growing up I always had fun if Frank was there. The best summer ever was spending a week together at Mammah's house in MS reviewing the day's adventure, whispering over her snoring, smelling the honeysuckle and cooking up the next day's adventure. You filled my boyhood with great memories. See you in the new heavens and new earth. I know there will be even sweeter honeysuckle smells and eternal adventures with King Jesus ruling and reigning forever. I will miss you cousin.

“ As a neighbor, my memories of Frank center around our short kindly talks while at the lake we lived on. Frank would be on a walk by the lake and I would be messing around with a rake or pitch fork working on the beach. He would offer encouragement and thanks for my efforts. Those serene moments mean a lot when we look back at times past.
