“ I known Fred my entire life. My Dad worked with Fred and Ted at Sherwood and Cedar Lake Parks when they were teens. I attended Fred's ASA races and had some laughs while attending local fire department parties. Rest well Fred, you earned it.

“ Fred was like a Dad to me growing up. He was very supportive when I later found myself divorced with 2 young daughters, even treating them like his own grandchildren.

Fred and Pat rented an Apartment to me a while back. I was single mom who just started a new job. They took a chance on me and rented the apartment to me. For that I will always be forever grateful. Prayers to the Nielsen family.
