“ Uncle Gary, I have missed you all so much back there in Illinois. I actually remember being the flower girl in your wedding. I thought you were so handsome and Aunt Mary was so beautiful, it was a wonderful wedding. I remember you taking me swimming in the indoor/outdoor pool, the one where the glass wall came down to the water to separate the in from the out. I think it was the first apartment complex you and Aunt Mary lived in together. But I most clearly remember how happy you guys were together. You both helped take care of me and you loved me like I was your own -just like Grandpa- for the year I lived there away from my mom and dad. I want you to know that it made all the difference. It helped make me who I am today, and is one of my most precious memories. God be with you. I love you.

*Grandpa,
It's me Jarrett and I just want to say I love and miss the times you and grandma used to always spoil me and my sister but the memories that mostly matter were the ones where you teased us, you hugged/handshaked us. And those meant a lot to me because you always said you loved us right after that.- love, jarrett p.s i miss and love you very much*

you taught me everything. I truly am the person I am today because of you! You were so smart I wanted to know everything you did. You were so kind, I wanted to behave in every way you did. You were so funny, I will try to put as much humor in my son's lives as I can because I loved when you made me laugh or teased me. I love you Dad, its not fair that you are gone.*

“ There are so many, when you asked me to marry you and then I said wait till tomorrow when you sober. Thank God you did.

“ To my hero. I will love you for the rest of my life. I have so many memories good and bad. Our life together has been wonderful. I miss you an awful lot. The day you asked me to marry you and I said wait until morning when we were both sober. Then one of your best friends came up to me and said congratulations and I looked at you and said its true. Then I thing I went over and smothered you with kisses. I'm not positive on the kissing part but thats my story and Im sticking to it.

*Love you,
Your wife forever.*
