“ George and his family were an important part of our family and lives. I wish it had been possible for us to attend the service this morning at St. Mark's. Unfortunately 1300 miles separate us and we can no longer do the marathon driving. We will hold these beautiful memories in our hearts. We miss you George but know you are with Marian and Chris, perhaps even sitting around a heavenly pool. We love you all. Our prayers are with you. Love and hugs, Lois and Bob

“ Uncle George and Aunt Mariane were a huge influence on how I turned out as an adult. The Lexau's and my parents set me on the path to where I am today as a 56 year old guy, devoted to the oceans, energy, and wildlife. The memories of growing up in Long Lake, the generosity of the Lexau family, the beautiful summer weekends at the pool, tacos, watching the Beatles on Ed Sullivan in 1968(?), too many awesome memorys to list. I miss you Uncle George.
