

Gregory Scott Clark

October 31, 1966 - September 24, 2024

Gregory was known for his love of classic rock like the Rolling Stones and living life near Deep Lake in Lake Villa where he moved with his loving wife Virginia in 2022. He enjoyed hanging out in the yard with his dogs, Jarvis and Molly. He was a lifelong construction worker and proud to be a union piledriver. He is survived by his sister Gillian Smith and brother Gordon. He has two sons, Gregory M. Clark with three handsome grandsons-Maddox, Miles, and Milo, and Ryan J. Clark with his wife Marian-two beautiful granddaughters- Jaelyn and Jocelyn. He was Preceded in death by his parents Gretchen and Gary Clark.

Please consider making a donation to the American Heart Association in his name. His tissue was donated through Gift of Hope and his remains were cremated. Rest in peace, dear Gregory. Your memory will live on in the hearts of those who Loved you. Rock on!
