“ I went to Ma's house (my grandma Cluthie) in my souped-up GTO. Picked up aunt Gyla and the two of just went cruising around, while enjoying a few cold beers. We ended up in a cornfield. Turned up the car stereo, full blast, and the two of us just started dancing, right there in the middle of the cornfield! Good times!!! Loved Gyla like a sister, the sister I never had, and I am going to miss her so very much! Love, David Richards.
