

Hailey Elizabeth Jackson Duty

February 9, 1996 - November 20, 2018

Hailey Elizabeth Jackson Duty (Hey Hey), born in Waukegan Illinois on February 09, 1996 passed away in her Lakemoor home at the young age of 22. She was a recent college graduate from the College of Lake County and worked as a loving caregiver.

There are so many words that can be used to describe how beautiful of a soul she was. Hailey was a silly, warm, smart, bright, beautiful and kind young woman but most of all she was a giver. She loved and was loved by so many. She gave way more than she ever received. No one knew the real pain that she was suffering.

Hailey is survived by her mother Nora, brothers Jimmy (Tori) and Stephan (Amy), her beloved niece Lacie and many more family members and friends. She is also leaving behind her loved fur babies Olivia and Allie. There are many broken hearts, but we thank her for staying with us as long as she could.

A memorial visitation will be held to celebrate her life on December 1st, 2018 at Ringa Funeral Home 122 S. Milwaukee Ave, Lake Villa IL from 1 – 5 pm with a service at 4:30 pm. We ask that if you have any pictures that you would like to share that you print them out and bring them with.

In lieu of flowers donations will be accepted and made in Hailey's honor.
There are many broken hearts, but we thank her for staying with us as long as she could.

“ At the ripe old age of four years old, you left an impression that was larger than life that I can never forget. You taught me a few things back then. Your beautiful smile always carried that spirit I remembered. You will never be forgotten, my dear lady.

“ Hailey was a beautiful person inside and out. Losing my baby sister is like losing a large part of me. I'm thankful for the time that we did share together. I will always love her more than words could express.
