Jack was a great guy in every way, and I believe that God is pleased with him. If I make it, I will see you in Heaven.

“ We have had the pleasure of living across the street from Jack and Karen for almost 30 years. When he was working it was always a job with long hours but if he saw I was working on something he would not hesitate to come over and offer any assistance, which was always appreciated because his mechanical skill was unparalleled, he was always good with conversation and interesting stories. he will be greatly missed, our condolences go out to Karen and the kids, Lynda and Dan Lochner
