

James Carl Errico Jr

September 22, 1946 - April 12, 2025

James Carl Errico Jr., 78, of Lake Villa, Illinois, passed away peacefully surrounded by family on April 12th, 2025 at Advocate Condell Medical Center. James will be remembered for his dedication to his family, his sense of humor, and unwavering integrity.

James was born on September 22, 1946 in Chicago, Illinois to James and Dorothy Errico (née Masek). He graduated from Deerfield High School in 1964, and was then drafted into the US Army where he was a tank mechanic and sharpshooter, receiving several medals and certifications. James then followed his passion for cars into the automotive industry, where he worked for many years. He married his great love Virginia on June 11th, 1976.

James enjoyed the outdoors, fishing, and being in the yard with the kids and dogs while grilling. He loved visiting Sunrise Lodge with his son in the summer, and riding his motorcycle with Virginia in his younger days.

James is survived by his wife Virginia, his children James (Carly) Errico III, Dianna Errico, grandchildren Gretchen and James IV, brother Thomas (Fusayo) Errico, and niece Kumi (Kevin) Reed.

Service with military honors will take place at Fort Sheridan National Cemetery in Lake Bluff, Illinois on June 6th, 2025 at 10:00 am.
