

James 'Jimmer' Gengler

May 12, 2022

James 'Jimmer' Gengler, 65, of Antioch, IL passed away on Thursday, May 12, 2022.

Jimmer was preceded in death by his brother, Jerome 'Scotty' Gengler; parents June 'Danny' Gengler and Jerome 'Jerry' Gengler. He is survived by his daughter Samantha (Kevin) Johnson, three wonderful grandchildren Dylan, Lillian, and Jack of Trevor, WI, and his siblings Terri Gengler, Doug (Debbie) Gengler, and Jill Caparelli as well as his cherished nieces and nephews.

Jimmer grew up in Chicago, IL where he graduated from Lane Tech High School. During his high school years, he was a member of the Cavalier Drum and Bugle Corps playing Baritone and Contra. Jimmer settled down momentarily in life and became a stay a home dad to care for his beloved punkin. He then returned to the workforce into the logistics industry. As a hobby he loved to play darts and spend time fishing. Jimmer will always be remembered as the life of the party. He made the very best friends wherever he went. He could walk into a place not knowing a single soul but would leave with many amazing new friends that he valued tremendously. His fun-loving soul will be remembered and missed by many.

In true "Jimmer-Esq" fashion, a celebration-of-life will be held on Friday, June 24th at the Antioch VFW at 75 North Ave, Antioch, IL 60002 from 3 PM to 7 PM. Come have a drink and share a story with Jimmer's family in his honor, as he would want nothing different.
