

Jason Aaron Goodman

March 25, 1971 - March 11, 2023

Jason Aaron Goodman 51 passed away peacefully in his home after living with ALS for over 6 years. A native of Lindenhurst, Jason was born in Evergreen Park, Chicago, and was raised in Lindenhurst. He graduated from Antioch Community High School where he met his soul mate, Kelly (Pramshafer). He received his bachelor's degree from UW Parkside and his MBA from DePaul University. He retired from MacLean Fogg in 2017 as their VP- Corporate Controller, where he spent the last 18 years of his career. He was and will forever be a hero to his wife and children, a very dedicated husband and father who sacrificed so much to provide for his family.

In mourning is his loving wife of 26 years, Kelly, his wonderful children, daughter Madelyn and son Mitchell. Also his mother Eileen Goodman, his father Jim (Carol) Goodman, and his sister Elizabeth (Borne) Mace. Other loved ones include his in laws, Debbie and Tracy Sodman, Mike and Linda Pramshafer, several nieces and nephews, and many childhood best friends. In Jason's words, "Be Kind, Work Hard, Make a Difference".

A memorial Visitation will take place on Thursday, March 16, 2023, from 2:00 - 6:00 pm with a service starting at 5:00 pm at Ringa Funeral Home 122 S. Milwaukee Ave. Lake Villa, IL. Burial at Resurrection Cemetery will take place privately
