“ Music brings people together and has the power to create friendships that will last forever. When I began my career in the music business, little did I know that i would cross paths with this beautiful soul and he would become one the best friends I will ever have. The honor of having him play my guitar on multiple occasions was truly mine. When I was down, he took time out on his lunch break that he could have been eating to give me a pep talk and try to lift me up. When i first met him I had no idea just how close of a friend he would become. I love him so much and I know that he is now at peace, but he left a such a void in my heart that i don't believe will ever heal for a long as I live. I love you so much my friend

“ I will greatly miss hanging out in the garage for band practice. Sharing stories and a few drinks along the way. Playing on stage with you was a blast and being your friend was an honor.

“ I can remember watching Jason in the Antioch High School variety show. He always seemed to be right after my daughter. They were friends, I remember his dad was there to support him. Jason was an occasional visitor at our home. We watched him preform at Lake Villa days with the band he was in. I can't imagine the pain his family is going through. I want to let them know how much he was loved (outside of them) and will be missed. You are all in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Jason and I were close friends in high school. While we hadn't been in touch for a long time, I still thought of him often. I have very fond memories of those days. We may never fully know the impacts that our life may have on others. Jason's were significant for many, I'm sure, including me. I am sending my love to his family. Jason's memory will be a blessing to all who knew him. Rock on and rest easy, Jason. You will be missed.
