“ I have know Jim since I was a very little girl. Our folks were good friends. About a year and a half ago, I met Jim and his wife at a birthday party for Alene Nelson. I had no idea until that day that Kathy had lost her battle with cancer as well. As late as I am, I want to send my sincerest condolences on behalf of the Hess family. May your favorite memories help you through your lonely sad times.

“ I have SO many great memories of Jimmy. I have known him for 40 of my 50 years.

When you lived in the little house behind us and kept my hamster overnight, so I could be surprised Christmas morning. Cedar Inn. You building your new house while I babysat for the boys. You always getting me home safe. Digger. Hanging out, dinners and New Year's Eve at your house with my mom and Bobby (and John). Lake Villa Days. Picnics at 84 East Grand. Door County trips and more.....

We are family.

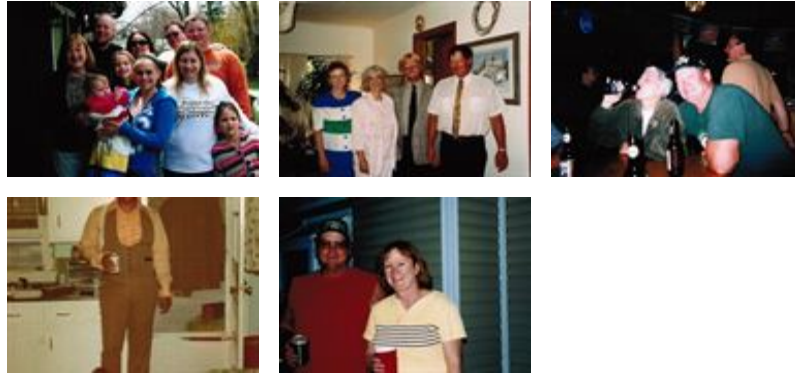

I'm sorry we can't be there.

Georjie, Glen and Phil-you know how much I love you.
