“ John would make us laugh - he had a quiet but quick sensor of humour. In our Tai Chi class, he was always so considerate of others' space. Everyone liked John. He was good at life and lived a good life, in the true sense of "good". There should be more people like John.

“ My deepest sympathy to Joan and her family. I belonged to the healthy club with John. He was in many of my exercise classes. It was such a fun time. He was always such a gentleman. I'm so thankful I got to know him. RIP John

“ My deepest sympathies to Aunt Joan, Paul, Michael and your families. I remember Uncle John's great laugh- as bratty little nieces and nephews, my siblings and I always seemed to make him laugh :) God bless you Uncle John.
