“ Candy and the rest of your family, I'm so sorry about your loss. When I lived Next door to you guys for about 4 years, John and I had some great times together. He loved keeping his lawn nice and always working outside. We would just talk in our driveways at different points in the day about anything! He always had a watchful eye in the neighborhood, especially when I was out of town for work! He was a very good neighbor to me and will be missed. So sorry Candy for your loss!

“ So many wonderful memories of John, we had a great childhood together. Although we didn't live in the same city it was so much fun either coming to Chicago and playing in the alley full of snow or John and his family coming to Florida to visit us every year....dressing up like the Beattles when they first came out, using brooms for guitars and hat boxes for drums-my yankee cousins how I loved you! John is at peace now and I have so much admiration and love for you Candy that I only pray for comfort through these tough times ahead. Love to you also Jennifer, Donal , Michael and Aiden.

“ Sincere sympathy to Candy, Jennifer, Donal, Michael and Aiden on the sad passing of John. A very gentle and unassuming gentleman. He was always very welcoming when we visited Chicago. May his gentle soul rest in eternal peace. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. R.I.P John.
