“ Dear Debbie: I'm so sorry to have been out of town and missed the memorial service for my friend John. He was my work buddy and always seemed to have the right answer for whatever building, maintenance, or just general dumb questions I had. Such a patient man! The depth of his knowledge was amazing, and he could solve the most vexing issues. Don't know what I will do without his wonderful guidance and friendship. When not discussing work issues, he sang the praises of you, his terrific daughters, and especially his grandchildren Jake and Lauren. He always had fresh pictures on his phone to share; he was so proud and tickled pink about the two little ones. He felt so happy and lucky to have grandkids. As Jake and Lauren grow up, they will be equally proud of their Grandpa and everything he accomplished in a life taken too young. I will miss him. Best wishes to you and the whole family - he loved you all more than anything. Martha Koch
