“ For the past three years, I had the honor and privilege of caring for one of the most wonderful souls I’ve ever met. He was kind-hearted, humble, and full of wit!! By reading all these comments he was clearly the kind of man who left a lasting impression on everyone he met, not with grand gestures, but with quiet strength, a gentle smile, and a heart full of love! Even as Alzheimer’s tried to steal pieces of his memory, it never touched his spirit. He remembered the things that truly mattered. His faith, his family, his beloved bride, and the stories that shaped his life. I was lucky enough to hear those stories over and over again and they never got old! He never lost his sense of humor or that perfectly-timed sarcastic remark that always made me laugh. Like the time I lost my glasses and phone in his condo and he said “it probably had to do with the people I was associating with”. We both cracked up!!

We prayed the Rosary together, and would sometimes watch mass on TV. A ritual that brought comfort and peace to both of us. His devotion to his faith was unwavering, and his love for his family was always front and center. He was a true Catholic, a proud father and grandfather/great grandfather and a man who lived with grace and gratitude.

Caring for him was one of the greatest gifts I’ve ever received. He taught me so much about patience, humility, and how life should be lived, with family always first. I’ll carry his memory in my heart forever, thankful for every moment we shared. I miss him so much but I have peace knowing he is in the loving arms of our Lord.

“ Myers Family I am very sorry for your loss. Unfortunately I cannot make the funeral. John was a great guy. 24 years ago he was my manager at the Sun Times. I asked to leave early on Friday cause I was going up to Galena to look for a house to buy for my family. John said come in my office, I'm selling my house in Galena and retiring which no one knows yet you should buy my house he said. Well 24 years later I still have JOHNS house and sat on the swing in the front yard just like he had last weekend to think of him. RIP Big I'll take good care of that home I know you loved.
