“ We talked today about Sweet John. Manny always treasured their cigar and sipping times. I will always treasure his hugs and laugh, his Italian wedding soup for holidays and his stories. John was always welcoming, sweet demeanor and he made everyone feel important to him. But like Manny said "In his day.... he was a bad @#####!! He would talk, listen and just sit and smile to those lucky enough to be in his company. We were the lucky ones..... Now John is the luckiest one for God will have John right by his side. Enjoying his company.
