“ My dear Uncle Johnny. What a guy! He had such a kind and loving heart and cherished those around him. His wonderful laugh is something I can still hear, after all these years, and it still makes me smile.

Aunt Betty and Uncle Johnny always had their hearts and home opened to all and I fondly remember our childhood trips from Chicago to go visit them in Lindenhurst. Though my stomach couldn't handle the trip, my heart and soul truly enjoyed their love, kindness, humor, and hospitality.

My best to the whole family as we mourn John Quinn's passing on.
