“ Nancy, Vic, David and Dan - I just heard about your Mom's passing from Nancy. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you during this time. Aunt Joy was always so much fun and I remember her contagious laugh during all of the picnics at Grandpa and Grandma Blum's house. My deepest sympathy to you families.

“ To the children of Aunt Joy, my condolences to you. Although we have never met, I have had the opportunity to meet your mom for the first and only time a few years back. We spent a wonderful day just talking, and she shared more things with about my birth mother, Rosemary, than I ever knew about her. We have exchanged Christmas cards every year, and we always loved her letter that would accompany her card!! She was always so young in her letters and full of life (and wit)! We have spoke a few times over the years, and she would always make me smile! I hope that someday we may meet, but until then, I pass on my thoughts and prayers for Aunt Joy.
