

Juan Ortega Jr.

October 26, 1977 - July 7, 2013

Juan Ortega, Jr., 35, of Ingleside, IL, passed away at home on Sunday, July 7, 2013.

He was born in Libertyville, IL on October 26, 1977, the son of Carmen Ortega and Juan Ortega Murillo. Juan was a graduate of Round Lake High School and spent six years in the Merchant Marines. Juan had a love for travel, movies and golf, but his biggest passion in life was his family. He was extremely dedicated and took great pride in his roles as a son, brother, uncle, and friend. His nephews meant everything to him. He had and always will have a positive impact on their lives. Juan made sure when he wasn't away at work, he spent all of his time going to the movies with his nephews, playing washers with his brother-in-law and friends, cracking jokes with his sisters, and spending quality time with his mother. Juan is and always will be his family's confidant, rock and protector.

He is survived by his parents Carmen Ortega and Juan Ortega, Sr.; sisters Marisol (Mark Price) Ortega, Michelle Ortega, and Esmerelda Alarcon; and nephews Andre Price, Aiden Price, AJ Bonilla, and Giomar Bonilla.

“ Carmen,
We are so, so saddened by the sudden loss of your loving son, Juan. We can only imagine how wonderfully you must have raised him based on how loving and generous you've been with our family. We also cannot imagine the hole in your heart without Juan with you on this earth. Please know that we think of you often and pray for you and your family that God would comfort you and hold you in the palm of his hand especially during this time. With love, Jill for the Kuhns family

“ You have always been a great man. You have always been there to help those who needed it. You always listened when I needed to talk and gave simple but honest advice. You will truly be missed. It's crazy how fast life passes us by... I'm now reminded why its so important to slow down and really pay attention to the little things. I love you Juan.. I'm so blessed to have known you. xoxo
