“ Dear Family and Friends of Our Most Beloved Judi,

In the midst of our deep sorrow with Judi's passing, the joy and love that she gave to each of us needs to be remembered.

Judi's loyalty and complete devotion to all of us touched our lives in more ways than can ever be counted.

With her love and compassion, Judi was always, always, thinking of ways to help each one of us. Whether it was a life crisis or simply to let us know she was thinking of us, Judi constantly shared her experiences and knowledge and used every last bit of her resources to lend us a helping hand when she could. This is truly what she lived for and this is precisely why she endured for so long against all odds.

Also not to be forgotten was Judi's keen sense of humor. We had many long and hearty laughs together, and remembering the sound of her laugh will eternally make my heart sing.

And as we all know, Judi loved to shop. I'm sure I'm not alone in saying that her gift giving was beyond generous, and I can hardly look anywhere in my home and not see something she's given me. Her true intent to bring joy to this world is symbolized in these gifts - - this is what is most precious about them.

Judi kept Hope alive in every moment for others, and for also her own recovery, which was certainly a remarkable feat. Judi's unwavering determination to carry on and to help others will remain an indelible inspiration for everyone whose life she touched.

The utter heartache of missing Judi is overshadowed by knowing that she is now be free of suffering. For all of us who knew her, the legacy that Judi leaves behind is a shining example of a life that was lived with compassion and devotion to those she loved.

Judi's memory shines strong and bright. She will never really leave us -- Judi will forever live on in our hearts and minds.

*With my love to you all,
Lorraine*

Nancy shared some beautiful memories of her sister with me...and when I read the tributes left on this wall, I could only surmise what a truly beautiful human being Judy truly was (and still is!). Because of this, it is a tremendous loss for family and friends alike. My heartfelt condolences go out to all who loved her. May your Faith be a blanket of comfort during this time of sorrow and may that sorrow be replaced by joyful memories that will lift your spirits in the days to come.
