

Kim Miller

June 1, 1968 - January 1, 2020

Kim Miller was born June 1st, 1968. Daughter to Fred and Norma Stroud and sister to Greg, Michael, Jayla, and Sherry. Kim is survived by her husband, Guy, their son, Mike, and is preceded in death by their late son, Ryan. On January 1st, 2020, Kim committed suicide in her family home in Lake Villa.

Kim was born in Chicago and later in Elk Grove Village met the love of her life, Guy. High school sweethearts, they got married shortly after graduating and have been married a wonderful 32 years.

After nursing her husband through Hodgkin's Disease, Kim and Guy decided to become foster parents. Together in 1995 they adopted and began raising two young boys, Mike and Ryan. From that day forward, caring for them, her family, and anyone else in need became her life's goal. Anyone who knows Kim, knows her as a caretaker. Her giving nature and desire to help those in need is what drove her.

Kim loved children. Her own children were the light of her life. Shortly before her passing, she began volunteering at a home for foster children as well as a kitchen aid in a local middle school. In conversation, she often mentioned how she wished she could take home the kids she met.

In 2018, her youngest son, Ryan, after a lengthy battle with mental illness, took his own life. Distraught and broken-hearted, Kim still sought out friends and family, continuing to volunteer and help those in need. Kim lived to be needed.

Her family still needs her and is devastated to see her go, but wishes her to be remembered by her bravery in the face of difficulty and her commitment to family and loved ones. Kim's selflessness and love of family is the legacy she leaves behind. She will be deeply missed by family and friends.

Visitation and viewing will take place on Monday January 6, 2020 from 4:00 - 8:00 pm with a service starting at 7:30 pm at Ringa Funeral Home 122 S Milwaukee Ave. Lake Villa, IL. Cremation will be private.

“ I went to a wedding yesterday for an old friend and I saw something I don't think was super typical at weddings. My friend had a dance with his mom and it was sweet, and it reminded me of you. I really hope that despite everything, you would have danced with me at my wedding. It could have been some Faith Hill or that Tarzan song--just something to serve as a better goodbye. I miss you, Mom.

I wasn't even aware that anyone could touch someone's in the way that you touched mine. I have continued to keep moving forward in life without you, as best as I can. I know that you are in good hands, and that we will be together forever again one day. “ I have been thinking about you a lot lately. It's your favorite time of the year again, which is difficult for me. Christmas is just around the corner and it is the most uncomfortable time for me. To my one and only true love. I have been thinking about life and how too many of us take for granted what we have, and how much we don't have a true appreciation for what we have been blessed with. You impacted my life in a way that I can't even describe. I appreciate everything that you've done for me and how supportive you always were throughout our life together. “ Kim,

Happy Anniversary my love. Today is the day that we decided to unite as one 37 years ago. September 5, 1987. I still remember it as if it were yesterday. You were the most beautiful bride that I've ever seen. I must admit that I was extremely nervous, but I knew that you were the one for me and that there was no doubt that our finding each other was destiny. I will continue to celebrate our special day, for we would have never ever divorced. Due to life's unexpected events, we are simply temporarily separated. In time, we will meet again one day. My faith in God is what continues to give me the strength to carry on. You know in your heart and soul that you were and will always be my one and only true love, as well as my best friend. I love you and miss you so very much. ❤️

After work today when I got in my truck, I touched my phone and saw your face on my wallpaper and said, “You are so beautiful” About a minute later, our song, Faithfully, by Journey came on the radio. I broke down and was in tears the entire way home. It was as if you knew that I was talking to you and you responded immediately. As painful as it was, it felt so good to know that we are in touch with each other. I love you and miss you so very much. I am Forever Yours Faithfully...

Forever is a really long time to not have a mom to spoil their grandkids or have fun July 4th events like we used to. I hope you think of those memories as often as I do. You gave us so many great ones over the years and although it upsets me, I'd relive those all over again if it meant losing you guys again. There are no words to describe how difficult it is living without you in my life. Today is three years since you decided to go. I struggle with your absence constantly. You have no idea how much of that three years I have spent replaying what transpired in my head, and wondering what, if anything I could have done differently to have altered the outcome. I know that we all need space apart and have certain obligations that don't allow us to watch over someone 24 hours a day, but I still continue to carry a tremendous amount of guilt. We have a grandson due to arrive any day now, and it just won't be the same, not having you here to experience it with me. You are my one and only true love. I will love you forever and always...

I may have at times taken for granted what you truly meant to me. And for that I apologize. As well as how much your presence positively impacted my life. We always shared a wonderful bond and appreciation for each other and our family, but moving forward without you, often feels impossible. I think of you every single minute of every day. And I weep all of the time. I refuse to give up, but I just feel like I continue to flounder around aimlessly. Bailey took off today to spend the morning with her mom and while I was glad she has the opportunity, it upset me that I could no longer have those moments with you. Just to eat the tuna mac you'd make us for lunch and chat. I really wish you hadn't made the decision you did. Forever is a really long time never to see or talk with someone again. I miss you so very much. I feel so alone without you. I am trying to move on in life, but it just seems wrong. I feel as if I am totally lost. You and Ryan will always be with me always. I am attempting to start a new chapter in my life, but I really need to know that I have your support. I think that you would be proud of me, but In all reality, I feel like I don't know what I am doing. All I can do for now, is follow my heart and gut instincts. I know that eventually, we will be together again one day, for eternity. Please forgive me, as I have forgiven you. I will love you always and forever.

I miss you more than any words can describe. Your absence has left me speechless, and unable to function as I once did. Our love for one another, and our family will forever remain strong and bold. I continue to struggle with your choice, to leave us all behind, but I have managed to get past the initial anger and disappointment that I have experienced for quite some time. Please know, that no matter what happens in my future, you will always be with me. Regardless of where I am, or where I go, whatever the future has in store for me, we will always be together forever.

I need you to realize that I am all alone now, and am forced to think on my own. I hope that you will embrace my choices, and understand, that I am doing what my heart is telling me to do.

Nothing will ever change what you have meant to me, or what you will always mean to me, moving forward. It's just that, at some point in time, I truly have to consider myself, and what is really best for me. Regardless of where life takes me, we will always be together, now and forever.

Somehow, I have managed to get past the anger and disappointment of your decision to go, but that will never change the fact that without you, I am a broken soul. I often wonder, what more life has in store for me. I must still have a purpose in this life, whatever it may be. “ Kim,

I truly can't believe that you chose to leave me behind, all alone and so empty. We were supposed to grow old together, experience what the future had in store for us, continue to enjoy our lives with one another. I guess that place will now, just be a forgotten mystery. You still belong here, with the living, with the one who loved and appreciated you most, me. I realize that it sounds selfish, but we honestly should still be together. I pray for you, Ryan, Mike, and myself every day. I love you with all of my heart, and miss you dearly.

“ Kim,

I'm having a difficult day today, I am surrounded by all of the things that you loved and yet, nothing was enough to keep you here with me. My mind is consumed with the fact that you are no longer here. It's as if losing you wasn't enough of a punishment, I continue to be constantly tortured daily by your absence. Sometimes I ask myself, how I will be able to carry on without you. I have come to the conclusion that this, unfortunately is my new way of life, like it or not. All I can do at this point, is take one day at a time, until we meet again. I love you and miss you so very much.

Please know that our love for one another was stronger than anything else in our lives, and even though we didn't have the opportunity to express that to one another at the very end, our love for each other was amazing and indescribable and will continue forever. I am suffering beyond belief. Now that I no longer have you here with me, my life is in shambles. I try to explain my situation to others, but no one can truly understand what I am going through. The love that we shared, is apparently not comprehend able to anyone other than you and I. As I have said so many times before, I will continue to attempt to keep moving forward, but it is becoming more difficult than ever. I love you so much that it hurts. I lay awake every night talking to you, crying out over your absence, hoping that I will wake and you will once again be there next to me, but it never happens. I don't know how to survive without you. You were my everything. I pray to God, to help me find the strength to carry on, but without you, it seems impossible. Please hear me, when I tell you that I love you with all of my heart, and I will continue to love you forever, until the day that I die.

Kim I had started a post and somehow lost it. Our families were brought together by your sons, my nephews. Your families are lost and looking to God every day, every hour, every minute. Mike needs both his parents. Guy is doing great being there for him. But no one can replace a son's mom. I wish there would have been a way for you to tell us what you were feeling. My family and your family were brought together by your sons, my nephews. You became a dear friend and a sister. Maybe my mom and dad are with you and Ryan. Cause since you left, my life is left with a void. Nothing has been able to keep me distracted enough to ease the heart ache . I keep seeing things that remind me of you. Pray all of you are watching and trying to guide us through our days. I was looking forward to many life experiences with you. Watching your joy and happiness. Your laugh was so infectious, your passion for family and children was what I admired. I pray that you and Ryan are at peace and will be there when it is my time to come home.

I'm so glad that I was able to see you one last time in this life. To touch one last time, kiss you one last time, and tell you everything that I didn't have a chance to say before you left us. I am so lonely, it's like my heart has been torn in half. As I move forward in my new life, I may lean on you from time to time, just to be sure that I am headed in the right direction. I was blessed when you came into my life, but now that you have been taken from me, my world has been turned upside down. I promise you that I will do my best moving forward. No words can describe how much I love you and how much you meant to me and not a day will go by that I won't think of you and our love for one another.

Love you more, Guy

you Guy, Mikey and the rest of the family. We are always here for “ Although I only knew Kim (and Mike and Guy) for less than a year, we shared a devastating bond, the loss of a son to Suicide. We Spent many hours talking. I just wish she would have seen how special she is and what she had to offer other kids. I did my best to encourage her and lead by example. It wasn't enough. Her loss of Ryan was more than she could bear. I miss you my friend! guy and Mike-I wish this had turned out different. My heart goes out to you.

“ My dear Kim,

I am so thankful that you are free of any more pain and suffering. I have witnessed what you have been dealing with and I truly did my best to be a caring, loving, understanding, supportive husband but still it wasn't enough, I can't believe that you are gone from our life together. It is way too soon for you to be leaving this all behind. Together, we had so much more to do. Maybe I am being a bit selfish but you belong here with the ones who loved and needed you most. I guess that is beyond my control, God has a plan and we are forced to accept it. I know that one day, we will be together again, so that is all that I have to hold on to, until then, I want you to know, I love you always, forever yours.

“ Kim (the love of my life), I'm so lost without you, the feeling of sadness and emptiness is unbearable. I know how difficult the past year has been for us since losing our son, but I was not prepared for this. I have such strong family support, and for that I am grateful, but once I am alone, I don't know how I will be able to look forward to the future, knowing that you will not be here to share it with me. We cannot change the past, but you must know that you will forever live in my heart. I love you so very much.

I loved her dearly and will miss her so much. I know Kim will be missed so much by her family as she was one of the most giving people. I am so saddened of this tragedy and sure wish that our long talks would have helped more but she hurt so bad. She loved her husband and boys so much as that was the topic of most all our conversation. I will truly miss her and know that she has left a influence on others that will last for years to come.
