

Lance Reconnu

March 28, 1948 - February 2, 2014

Lance Reconnu, 65, of Bristol, WI, passed away peacefully at St. Luke's Hospital in Milwaukee on Sunday, February 2, 2014.

He was born in Pittsburgh on March 28, 1948, the son of Betty and the late Albert Reconnu. He married his wife Ginger on February 20, 1982. He was a graduate of St. John's Military Academy and Robert Morris College, and he served two tours of duty during the Vietnam Conflict with the United States Army. Lance was also a passionate horseman and barrel racer. He was a member of the NBHA and the AQHA, both horsemen's associations.

He is survived by his wife of 31 years Ginger Reconnu, mother Betty, brothers Don Reconnu of South Dakota and David Reconnu of Florida, and many other friends and family members.

A celebration of Lance's life will begin with a remembrance service beginning promptly at noon on Saturday, February 8, 2014 at VFW Post 1865, 6618 39th Ave. Kenosha, WI 53142. A reception will follow the service and will last until 2 p.m. at the VFW. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation in Lance's memory to VFW Post 1865.

Let me tell you folks...

Let me tell you folks, who have gathered here today
That I'm a proud and thankful cowboy
Who has just passed away.
I know it's hard, But, please don't cry,
for I'm now riding God's trails High up in the sky.
The horses I'm riding now don't spook, buck or kick,
for God stables perfect horses and now I have my pick.
Lord, please forgive me all my sins
for I haven't been perfect, but I know that he who believes in You forever wins!
I have lived a good life, a cowboy's dream come true.
Thank you Lord, for I'm now ready to ride into eternity
Me, my horse and You.

“ My sad heart goes out to Lance's family. I went to school with Lance. Class of 66' Lake Forest High School, I believe. I had a crush on him. My Mom would drive me by his house in Lake Forest. He was a dashing young man. After all these years, his name popped into my mind, and I looked him up. So sad he is gone. My brother died at fifty nine years this past January. I feel awful that Lance is gone. He had a handsome smile and a playful personality. I hug you in your grief.

“ Very sorry to have heard of Lance’s passing. Though we are many miles apart, I had the pleasure to speak with cousin Lance after my mother’s passing. Aunt Betty Lou always had wonderful things to say about Lance when we talk and we are both very saddened by his passing. God Bless his/our family in their time of need.

“ I am so saddened to hear about Lance's passing. He was such a doll! We had many fun times double dating in High School when he was attending St Johns. He dated one of my good friends Sheri for a few years and when we all graduated and went our separate ways I often thought of him and what he was up to. Leave it to Facebook to reconnect us and it was a pleasure just knowing he was happily married and living his dream. Has anyone ever seen such beautiful blue eyes! And those long eye lashes!!! He lives on in all our wonderful memories of a lovely man.

“ We will never forget Lance.I have known him since we were kids living in Lake Forest,Illinois.He always had that cool hand Luke smile and never had a mean bone in his body.My wife Linda and I used to go to the horse shows where Lance and Ginger used to barrel race.It was very exciting,I never saw anyone get so close to the ground going around a barrel so fast.Both he and Ginger were very talented people.I had the honer to take the photos of their wedding,and they made a wonderful couple.We went to a restaurant after the reception for dinner.Lance was having so much fun and had a few to many drinks.As we all watched quietly,Lance started to butter a soggy paper napkin.He took a bite and then stated that was the worst dinner roll he ever had! We laughed so hard almost fell off the chairs! Every year I call him on his birthday and tell him he was a week older than I was.When we moved to California in 1982 we left two dear friends,Lance and Ginger who were in our thoughts every day.Lance was a good man,it is a great loss to go before your time,but he is at peace in heaven which is a good thing.Ginger,keep your faith and know that you will be together again in heaven someday. All our love for you Ginger. Linda & Robert Renz

“ So hard to say goodbye to such a great man. I will cherish all of the memories I have with Lance from painting the barn, to giving me advice on how to fix my pattern, and letting me ride Nikki. I remember taking Nikki through the pattern and Lance telling me to drive her to the second...yep almost fell off, that horse has one wicked turn! Lance was such a great role model and I looked up to him and still do. You will be greatly missed Lance. We will be running for you this summer! <3

There will not be a day that goes by for the rest of your life that you will not think of him, as it should be. I know it is difficult, but you will survive, as Lance would want. Ginger, We are very proud that Lance thought so much of Cody, now that he has grown to manhood. Lance could always read people as well as horses. We are glad that we were able to spend time with Lance in the past few months, and it means the world to Cody. I know every time he throws a leg over that saddle, he will think of Lance. For sure, the deal they made this winter will happen. We love you both and you both are in our prayers.

Linda Wilson - February 04, 2014 at 10:12 PM

Cody and I are so grateful for the time we spent with Lance this fall and winter. I am so very happy and proud that Lance felt Cody has grown up to be a caring, kind and considerate young man. In our last conversation, he told me how proud of Cody he really was, especially of his "little boy dream" of vet school, now becoming a reality. Lance was a great judge of horses and saw potential when others didn't, but he also was a great judge of people. We will both always remember the piece of advise Lance gave Cody about life and women. He has taken that to heart Cody told me today, that every time he sits in Lances saddle, he will remember him with a smile, and is grateful to have a bit of Lance. Lance is in our prayers, and we will miss him. God just got Him a Great Cowboy.
