“ Lorraine was a beautiful lady and a mom to so many! Growing up with Sue, Bill and Dave on Petite Lake Road was filled with many lasting memories of wonderful times at the Seversons. The Burnett boys (yes all 6 of us) were always welcomed by Lorraine into the Severson's home. Lorraine left a lasting mark on so many - her children and their spouses, her many grandchildren and countless friends...she will be missed!

“ I will always remember Lorraine in the middle of a circle of her grandchildren, "dancing" for joy in her wheelchair. Life was full of joy for her, and she brought joy to the lives of all who were privileged to know her.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time. I have many fond memories of Mrs. Severson as a 4H leader. She and my Mom (June Crichton) were a great tag team.
