

Madilyn Stressler

January 1, 1952 - October 24, 2024

Madilyn Rita Stressler, 72 of Lake Villa, IL passed away on Thursday October 24th, 2024, peacefully at home surrounded by family.

Madilyn was born in Chicago on January 1st, 1952, the daughter of the late George and Jean Siebert (Schenk). She graduated from Foreman High School of Chicago. She married John Stressler on July 19th, 1975. Madilyn worked for the phone company, several schools in Lake County, and was a loving homemaker. Madilyn enjoyed bowling, hiking, walking with her sister, and spending time with friends and family in the Northwoods. She loved to sit by the lake, sip wine, and enjoy the fall colors. Madilyn was known for her unique hairstyles over the years. She loved spending time with her grandkids and attending their sports games. She was affectionately known as "Busha" by her grandkids. She was well known for being extremely kind and compassionate to everyone she met.

She is survived by her loving husband of 49 plus years, John Stressler; sons Michael and John (Katie) Stressler; grandsons Bryce and Blake Stressler; sister Carol (Rick) Kjelstad; sister-in-law of Phyllis Peters, late Donna Madziarek; and niece Sheri (Jeff) Hartman.

Daughter of the late George and Jean Siebert (Schenk).

A memorial visitation will be from 1-4p.m. on Friday November 1st, at Ringa Funeral Home, 122 S. Milwaukee Ave (Rt 83) Lake Villa, IL 60046. Eulogy at 4:00pm. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be given to Make-A -Wish Foundation: <https://tinyurl.com/yba5y35e>

Madilyn's family would like everyone to cherish time spent with friends and family and have a wine in her honor.
