“ Every time I hear 'Revelation Song', I think about last month, the last time serving communion with Marge. We were singing this song prior to walking down the main aisle to the front of the church to serve communion, and she sang this song with such passion, now she sings this song to the FACE of the LORD OUR GOD, HOW AWESOME knowing that Marge is with Him! What will seem like years to us, will be a blink of an eye to her, we will see Marge again, but we still miss her during our stay here on this earth.

“ To Marge's Family:

Words can not express how saddened I was to hear the news of Marge's passing. She became my realtor two years ago and became my friend. She helped myself and my children resettle into a new home. Through the snow and three purchase offers she was there for us. She went far beyond what any realtor would do as she truly cared. She made a huge difference in our lives when we needed someone special. We talked well after the closing; she provided endless support. She talked about time with family on a cruise and the birth of a new baby. I am so thankful for her coming into our lives and am so sorry to those closest to her for her passing.

“ We met Marge about 17 years ago when we were looking for our first home. She was such a wonderful fun person! We kept in touch throughout the years. I ran into her at some genealogy seminars and shared that interest with her. She was always happy to share ideas and talk about her family. She loved you all very much. I last had contact with her in Jan. through email and know she was so excited to be having more time with Sabrina and Richard. Quotes from her email: "We are having a blast with Sabrina! She just started walking last week. She would hold onto furniture, but now she is free-wheeling! She is coming on Friday morning to stay until Saturday morning with us. We always look forward to that. She is truly such a sweet, well-natured little lovebug!" We are so sorry for your loss. We will miss her as well!
Our thoughts and prayers are with you all,

“ Richard, my dad just called to share the news. I am stunned, and gutted. I'm also supremely grateful. Grateful to have had the privilege of knowing Marge, and particularly grateful to have had the chance to visit you two last summer and introduce Jack to the both of you. I will always remember her as being one of those rare, effervescent people who so effortlessly makes whomever she's speaking with feel like the most important person in the room. Everyone who knew her is a better person for it.

“ Dear Rich,
Our hearts ache with you and for you, dear friend, at the loss of such sweet, lovely sunshine in your life. What a delightful woman Marge was...well, is, because now she's been perfected in the presence of her Savior! Does it help to know there are many, many people grieving along with you? Her passing is a great loss to so many of us, although such a great gain to her. May the thought of her worshipping actually at the feet of her precious Jesus give you comfort in the days ahead. Our hearts, thoughts, and prayers are with you.
With love, Laura, Sam, and Cherry

“ It is with sadness and prayer for family that I write:
I remember meeting Marge when we were Freshman at Maine South in 1969. I liked her immediately. She has been a loyal friend over the past 44 years. I will always remember her delightful personality and smile, and life in her eyes and heart. Her goodness will always be remembered.

“ I loved Marge the minute I met her! My first memory of her is sitting in a Bible Study I was teaching. Oh the questions! But I greatly appreciated Marge's honest and open quest for the Truth. I had such joy in seeing Marge embrace the gospel and grow so much in her faith. I will miss her very much.
