“ Mark and I would always talk about "the one job" ill spare you all the details but the things I'll always remember about Mark is that he was one of the hardest workers I have ever know. He cared about his family and loved them in a way that is inspiring, and he loved solving problems. I loved when he would have to show me his latest little gadget or toy which he had of course taken apart and found a way to make it better! Mark was a great boss and an even better friend. All my love and prayers are with his family.
